McGUIRE COAT OF ARMS

Mac Guire

MAC GUIRE, MAGUIRE, MC GUIRE . . . these are spelling variants of the Irish Maguidhir, meaning dun-coloured. The Maguires belong to county Fermanagh and first appear in the annals of the year 956. For the next three centuries their chiefs were most important in Ulster (north of Ireland). Maguire, Baron of Eniskillen, had a regiment of infantry in James II army in Ireland. After the final defeat they were found among the Wild Geese in France and Austria. Later Barons of Enniskillen were accepted as nobility in France until the title became extinct about 1795. Many distinguished members of the family prominent in Irish history hail from county Fermanagh. The spelling of Maguire is in common usage, where the Mc and Mac have been absorbed. The name occupies the 39th place in the list of most numerous surnames in Ireland and holds first place in county Fermanagh. Hundreds of years ago descendants of the great Hugh Maguire were sailing in cross channel ships.

FAMILY RECORD OF PATRICK McGUIRE

Patrick McGuire emigrated from Ireland, to America probably around 1775. Little is known as to the county from which he came, but we feel sure it was a county in Northern Ireland.

He settled, for part of his early life, in Bedford County, Pennsylvania. He married Catherine Prigmore about 1775. He was a soldier in Washington's Army in the Revolutionary War.

For proof of his participation in the Revolutionary War, see Pennsylvania Archives, 5th Series, Vol. II, pp. 477, 478, 480.

Some years following the war, probably around 1790, he and his family moved to Jefferson County, Tennessee, where he settled on Long Creek, near what is now White Pine. We have no known record of which children were born in Pennsylvania or Tennessee. His children and the persons each married follows, not necessarily in the order of birth. Since his will was left in the hands of his son Thomas, we must assume that he was the youngest child, but not necessarily so. We call Patrick, No. 1, since we know nothing of his ancestors in Ireland.

	2A	Catherine McGuire	married Joseph Grisham (no information)
	2B	Patience McGuire	married Amos Ashmore
	2C	Rachel McGuire	married Joseph McQuiston
twin	2D	Mary Margaret	married Rev. Daniel Lyle
twin	2E	Joseph McGuire	married Jane Isabel Collins
	2F	Rebecca Ann McGuire	married Joseph Nicholson
	2G	Michael McGuire	married Harriett Jacobs
	2H	Elizabeth McGuire	married Thomas Jacobs (no information)
	2J	Ruth McGuire	married John Rankin
	2K	Lydia McGuire	married Samuel Gilbreath
	2L	Thomas McGuire	married Rachel Ashmore

Explanation of the listing on descendants follows:

Patrick is listed as No. 1. His children are 2, or the second generation; the letter (A thru L) separates his children's families, one from the others and the third generation is so marked; thus, Joseph Alexander McGuire is the son of Patrick J., 3E-4, who is the son of Joseph, 2E, and Patrick J.'s son, Joseph Alexander, is 4E-3, the third child of Patrick J. McGuire and Sarah Alexander McGuire.

The line, then, is Patrick (1) Joseph (2E-5) Patrick J. (3E-4), and then Joseph Alexander (4E-3). The last figure tells the child's numerical standing in his or her own family. This is to simplify, so far as possible, the standing of each child, for it will be hard enough at best to identify any descendant. Adopted children (not blood descent) are marked with an (A).

Data Compiled by:

- 5G-2 C. W. Hammer, Salt Lake City, Utah
- 5E-5 Roy L. McGuire, Asheville, N. C., who prepared the Family Tree (center of this book) and first connected us with the Revolutionary War so far as we know.
- 5L-4 Mrs. Mildred Poisel, d. 1-14-1958, Decatur, Illinois
- 5E-2 Dr. Wayne Patrick McGuire, Sylva, North Carolina
- 5E-8 Dr. Burruss Boyd McGuire, Spruce Pine, North Carolina

Errors will be found. This is inevitable, due to the magnitude of the task and passing away of many whose record cannot be found. If any unknown members of the family, or even known members, find errors or omissions, please write or otherwise contact Mr. C. W. Hammer, 1160 East 13th South Street, Salt Lake City 5, Utah.

So far, nothing is known about: 2A Catherine McGuire who m. Joseph Grisham; 2H Elizabeth McGuire who m. Thomas Jacobs. We do not know if either couple had children. In case any person who sees this book has authentic information about either family or unstated facts or errors about any of those mentioned, please write Mr. Hammer.

The above mentioned descendants who made the investigations and gathered the information have used every method known to them, to get the facts. You can still help if you have definite proof of suppositions or known facts. In all such cases, please contact Mr. Hammer.

Many other members of most families have obtained data from members of other families and have been most cooperative in supplying data on their own families. For this assistance, we desire to express our sincere thanks.

David Crockett

A letter from one of his neighbors.

Cullasaja, Macon County, N. C.
November 22d, 1884

To the Editor of the Morristown (Tenn.) Gazette:

Some weeks ago I saw in the Knoxville Cronicle an enquiry for the purpose of gaining a knowledge of the history of the Celebrated Davy Crockett. I first knew him when I was a child, then when a boy, then when a youth perhaps 15 years old, then saw him when a man of 20 years.

Crockett was a poor man when first I saw him. He was then a married man, lived three-fourths of a mile of my father, in Findley's Gap, in Jefferson County, Bay's Mountain, Tenn. This gap is on the road leading from Mossy Creek to Chucky, and is in the line of ridges that spans the Honeycutt Valley that runs near to Morristown. My first recollection of Crockett was when a boy of some 6 or 8 years. He was then making rails for my father. I went to him where he had cut a very large yellow pine tree. He frequently called on me to hand him the wedge or glut, which ever he wanted. This ends my boy recollection of Crockett. This period was near the time of the war of 1812 with Great Britain. Crockett, about this time, moved to what was then called the Western District, or Fork-a-Deer Country, in Tenn. His wife's name was Mary Findley. When he left the country he was poor, and left a debt of one dollar to my father. He was absent several years before I saw him again. One morning I was standing in the door next to main road; I looked down the road toward Mossy Creek and saw a fine looking man riding in front of a large drove of horses. He rode opposite me and stopped and asked me if my mother was in the house. I answered she was. "Tell her to come to the door." I did so, and when she appeared he said, "How do you do, Mrs. Jacobs?" My mother said, "Sir, you have the advantage of me." "I am Davy Crockett," responded he. "Is that you, Davy?", said my mother. "Yes," said he, "this is Davy Crockett." Then a general shaking of hands took place, and enquiry of the health of families, etc. Just at this moment his horses came rushing up and nearly got ahead of him. He thrust his hand into his pocket and pulled his pocket book and pulled out a silver dollar and said, "Here, Madam, is a dollar I owed your husband, John Jacobs, when I left the country." My father had died in the meantime. My mother said, "Davy, I don't want it." "I owed it," he said, "and you have got to take it." My mother then took the dollar, and Davy Crockett then rode on to South Carolina to sell his horses. This ends my second short acquaintance with this noted man.

Some years elapsed, and Crockett had made his way to the Congress of the United States. James Blackburn had a corn-shucking in my neighborhood. There were many hands around the heap. We saw a fine gentleman riding toward the house. He alighted and went into the house, made himself known, passed the usual compliments, then came down to the men around the heap of corn, gave a general shaking of hands with all the citizens, then turned up the cuffs of his fine broadcloth and went to shucking corn with the other hands. He worked on till dinner was announced, then ate his dinner and left for his home. This was the last sight I ever had of this wonderful man. I shall here give you a description of Davy Crockett: He was about 6 feet high, weighed two hundred pounds, had no surplus flesh, broad shouldered, stood erect, was a man of great physical strength, of fine appearance, his cheeks mantled with a rosy hue, eyes vivacious, and in form, had no superior. N.B. The writer studied whether to write or not, after serious and close thinking, I could find no one in all that part of your country that had any recollection of Davy Crockett but myself. This prompted me to write. I am now entering into my 80th year. I never knew where Crockett was born.

Very respectfully,

John L. Jacobs

The following letter was copied verbatim by Miss Annie Bell Bryson, Franklin, N. C., November 1961, from her mothers scrap book. Her mother was Mary Emma Bell - 1878 - 1957, granddaughter of John L. Jacobs - 1806 - 1888.

David Crockett

A letter from one of his neighbors.

Cullasaja, Macon County, N. C.
November 22d, 1884

To the Editor of the Morristown (Tenn.) Gazette:

Some weeks ago I saw in the Knoxville Cronicle an enquiry for the purpose of gaining a knowledge of the history of the Celebrated Davy Crockett. I first knew him when I was a child, then when a boy, then when a youth perhaps 15 years old, then saw him when a man of 20 years.

Crockett was a poor man when first I saw him. He was then a married man, lived three-fourths of a mile of my father, in Findley's Gap, in Jefferson County, Bay's Mountain, Tenn. This gap is on the road leading from Mossy Creek to Chucky, and is in the line of ridges that spans the Honeycutt Valley that runs near to Morristown. My first recollection of Crockett was when a boy of some 6 or 8 years. He was then making rails for my father. I went to him where he had cut a very large yellow pine tree. He frequently called on me to hand him the wedge or glut, which ever he wanted. This ends my boy recollection of Crockett. This period was near the time of the war of 1812 with Great Britain. Crockett, about this time, moved to what was then called the Western District, or Fork-a-Deer Country, in Tenn. His wife's name was Mary Findley. When he left the country he was poor, and left a debt of one dollar to my father. He was absent several years before I saw him again. One morning I was standing in the door next to main road; I looked down the road toward Mossy Creek and saw a fine looking man riding in front of a large drove of horses. He rode opposite me and stopped and asked me if my mother was in the house. I answered she was. "Tell her to come to the door." I did so, and when she appeared he said, "How do you do, Mrs. Jacobs?" My mother said, "Sir, you have the advantage of me." "I am Davy Crockett," responded he. "Is that you, Davy?", said my mother. "Yes," said he, "this is Davy Crockett." Then a general shaking of hands took place, and enquiry of the health of families, etc. Just at this moment his horses came rushing up and nearly got ahead of him. He thrust his hand into his pocket and pulled his pocket book and pulled out a silver dollar and said, "Here, Madam, is a dollar I owed your husband, John Jacobs, when I left the country." My father had died in the meantime. My mother said, "Davy, I don't want it." "I owed it," he said, "and you have got to take it." My mother then took the dollar, and Davy Crockett then rode on to South Carolina to sell his horses. This ends my second short acquaintance with this noted man.

Dear Cousin,

Concerning the Patrick McGuire Genealogy, we feel that many of you will not know to which family a certain person belongs, nor the page in the book where the name appears.

I know the page and symbol for a number, but by no means all of them. We are having mimeographed the pages and symbols that I know, and we are sending the list to all who have paid more than the books cost us.

It cost us about $50 to send just one letter to all to whom books were mailed. For this reason I would suggest that Mr. Hammer be asked questions any of you would like to have answered, in addition to this list.

I think it only fair to him that at least a self-addressed stamped envelope be enclosed for his reply.

Should any of you desire a tinted (colored) authentic coat of arms, we suggest that you contact the Library of Congress, Wash., D. C., for a list of persons who do such work. The authentic (correct) coat of arms, reduced, is in the book.

My colored coat of arms was done nicely by Miss Janet W. Meetze, 4139 South 36th St., Arlington 6, Va.

In locating family members, don't forget to refer to page 4 in the book.

I have already paid in cash, the following amounts:

Typing, printing, postage, coat of arms	$1,977.59
Received for book	$1,651.54

We hope that this list will be helpful to you.

With best wishes to all of you.

Sincerely,

B. B. McGuire

B. B. McGuire, M.D.
